

2017 ANTOINETTE BROWN BLACKWELL SOCIETY'S HENRIETTA WOMAN OF THE YEAR AWARD

The thirty-fifth annual award to an outstanding Henrietta woman will be made on May 3, 2017. This award is given in memory of the first ordained woman minister in the United States, Antoinette Brown Blackwell, who was born and raised in Henrietta, New York.

Any woman who is presently a resident of Henrietta and who has demonstrated leadership, inspired others toward the common good, or has through her actions and as a role model made an effective and significant contribution to her community and society at large, may be nominated for this award. If you know of a Henrietta woman who should be nominated for this award, please submit her name on the form below and forward to:

*ABB Nominating Committee
PO Box 133
Henrietta, NY 14467*

Additional written support from others may be attached.

Nominations must be received by March 18, 2017. Confidentiality will be respected. For more information, please contact Shirley Wallace (334-0273), or Sylvia Korn (334-4443). Members of the award committee are not eligible.

NOMINATION FORM

NAME OF NOMINEE _____

ADDRESS _____ ZIP CODE _____

PHONE NUMBER (home) _____ (work) _____

E-MAIL ADDRESS _____

NOMINATION SUBMITTED BY _____

ADDRESS _____ ZIP CODE _____

PHONE NUMBER (home) _____ (work) _____

E-MAIL ADDRESS _____

Please describe the nominee with regard to the following qualities. Attach separate pieces of paper if additional space is needed.

1. LEADERSHIP QUALITIES: Include titles and years for leadership positions held.

2. CONTRIBUTION TO COMMUNITY AND WORLD:

3. OUTSTANDING PERSONAL CHARACTERISTICS: i.e. dedication, compassion, et cetera. Describe specific examples when these characteristics were evident.

4. OTHER PERTINENT INFORMATION:
